LUCIE TIGER WINS COUNTRY MUSIC AWARD AT THE OPRY, NASHVILLE

Congratulations are so in order for Australia's shining star in Nashville, Lucie Tiger.

Lucie recently won Country Vocalist of the Year Award at the 11th Annual Josie Music Awards, Grand Ole Opry, Nashville, November 2, 2025. Lucie was nominated for two awards including Artist of the Year (Modern Country) and Country Vocalist of the Year. Stepping into the legendary circle at the Opry to accept her award, Lucie thanked the Josie Music Awards organization for supporting independent artists, country radio, and her team at 2120 Music.

The Josie Music Awards have been held annually in the United States since 2015 and it is an award organization that honors independent music across all genres, artists, musicians, and songwriters. The panel of judges is made up of musicians and music industry professionals.

Lucie Tiger has chalked up seven self-penned singles on the Music Row Country Breakout chart—an unprecedented feat for an independent Australian artist—including the singles, Found My Home (#50) in 2021 and Everybody Knows Your Name (#53) in early 2025. Lucie's single Gasoline, recorded at FAME Studios, won Country Blues Song of the Year in 2021.

HUGE congrats Lucie from all team at HOC HQ!

@lucietigermusic #lucietiger #countrymusic #countryrock #newsinglealert #harvestmoon #aussiecountry #australiancountrymusic #crankitup #keepitcountry #playsomethingcountry #highoncountry #countrymusiclovers #peaceloveandcountrymusic
Della Arrowsmith